- Custom: An action of a group done often enough that it becomes a characteristic of the group (clothing style choices)
- Folk Culture: Traditionally practiced by groups in homogeneous, rural, isolated areas.
- Popular Culture: Found in large, heterogeneous societies that share certain habits even if there is much diversity.

Popular Culture vs. Folk Culture

- Popular Culture: Hierarchical diffusion
  - Rapid diffusion through modern communication and transportation
    - Ex. Films or Internet
- Folk Culture: Relocation diffusion
  - Slow diffusion through the actual movement of people

Folk vs Popular Culture

Why is folk culture only in small areas

- Physical environment
  - Clothing is often specific to the natural world around people
  - Food choices are often a result of what can be grown in that climate, how much land is available, and what is acceptable to be eaten
  - Housing styles are initially a result of the natural world.

Case Study: Mongolia

Why is folk culture clustered?

- Isolation
  - Throughout history, slow communication and diffusion of culture meant that even short distances could keep people from sharing cultural traits.

Case Study: Inuit

Why does spread of popular culture cause problems?

- Threat to folk culture
  - Loss of traditional values
    - Change in food, shelter, and clothing preferences because of exposure to popular culture
  - changes in culture can lead to controversy, especially in very religious places.
