Directions: Use the website of the Islamic Institute of Art out of Qatar to answer the following questions.

1. You are the curator for the Minneapolis Institute of Arts and you want to highlight several pieces of Islamic art (prior to 1800 C.E.) in a new exhibit. You have made a deal with The Islamic Institute of Art in Qatar to borrow four different pieces. It is your job to use their website to select three pieces that will best represent the Islamic Artist style of Iran. Decide which three pieces you would like to borrow for your museum and explain why you feel those pieces are good representations of the diversity of Islamic art.
