

Thematic Maps

Different Styles of Maps and the Information they Provide

Cartogram

- Changes the physical size of an area to display a characteristic

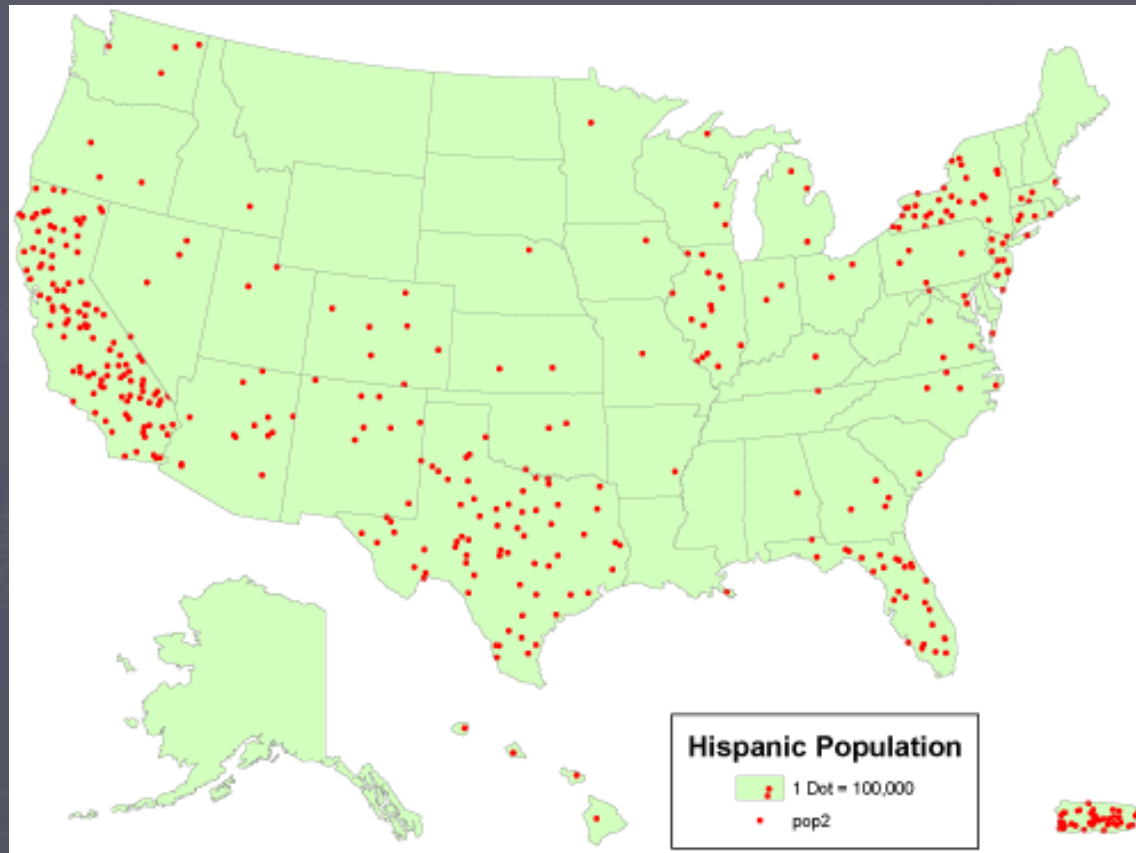

Choropleth

- Shows value or characteristic by using different colors

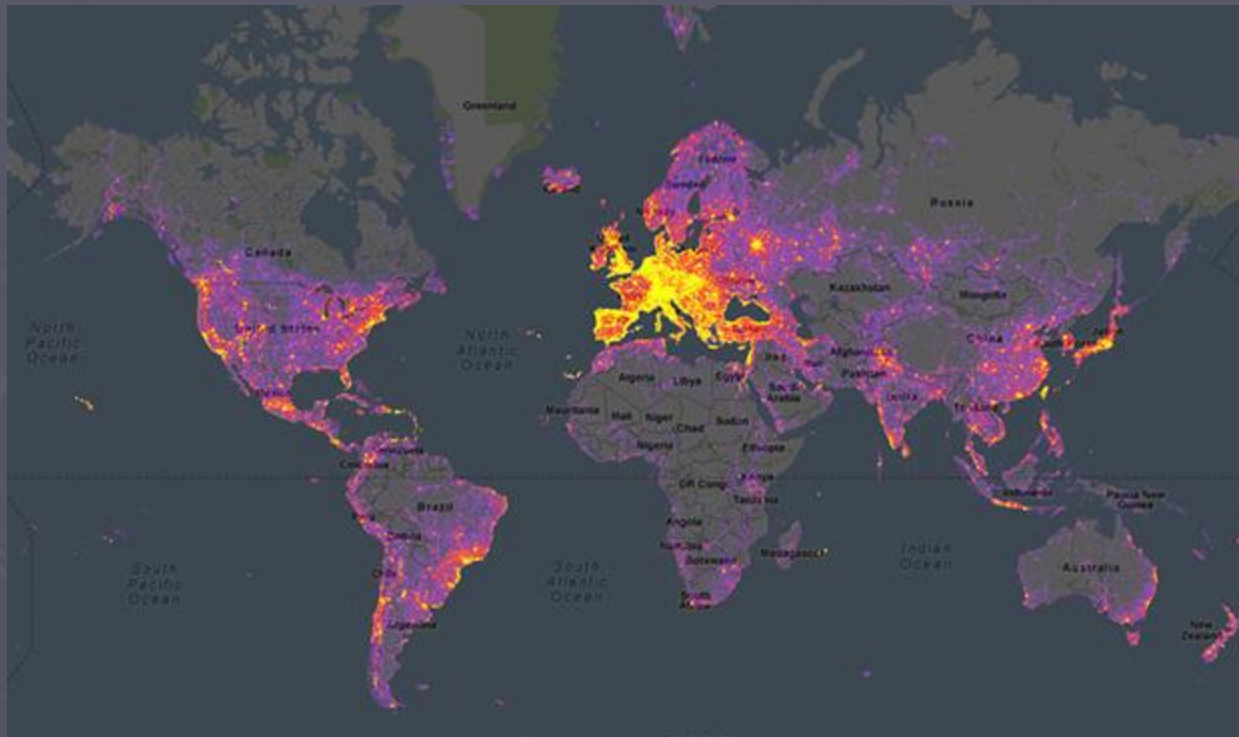

Dot Density

- Each dot has an assigned value, the more dots the more a characteristic is prevalent

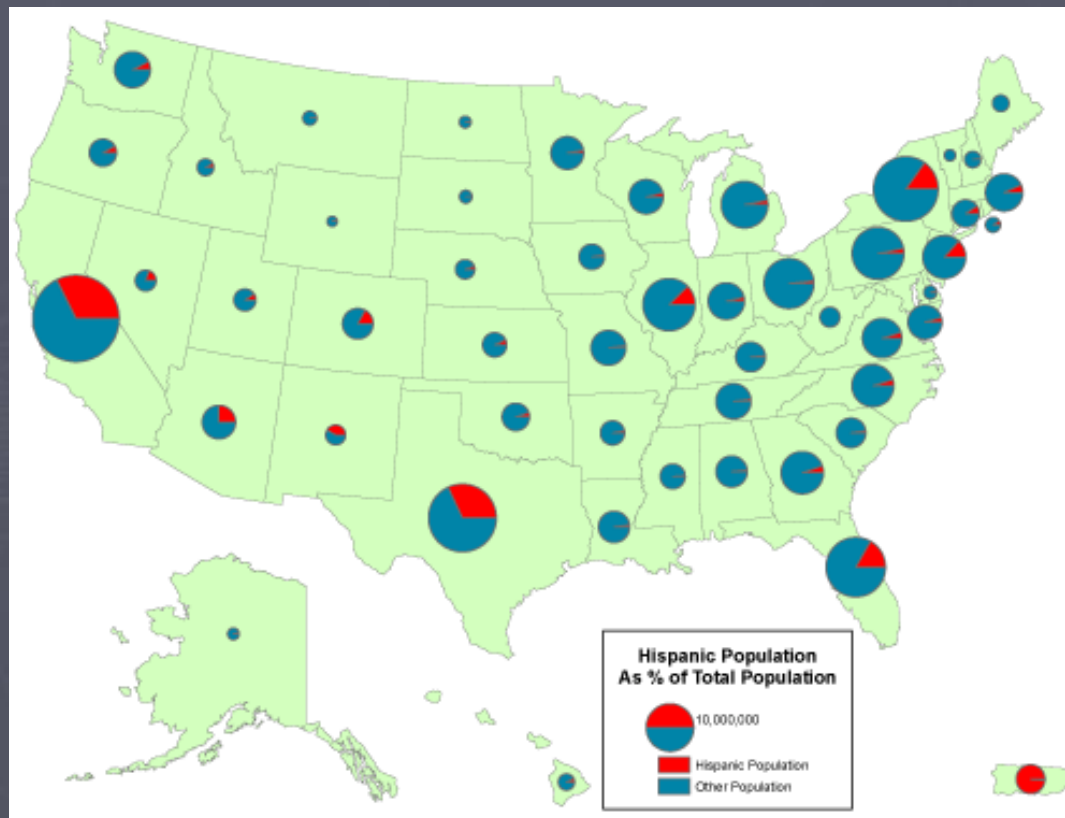

Heat Map

- A map that shows distribution through the use of color
 - “Hotter” means more exists

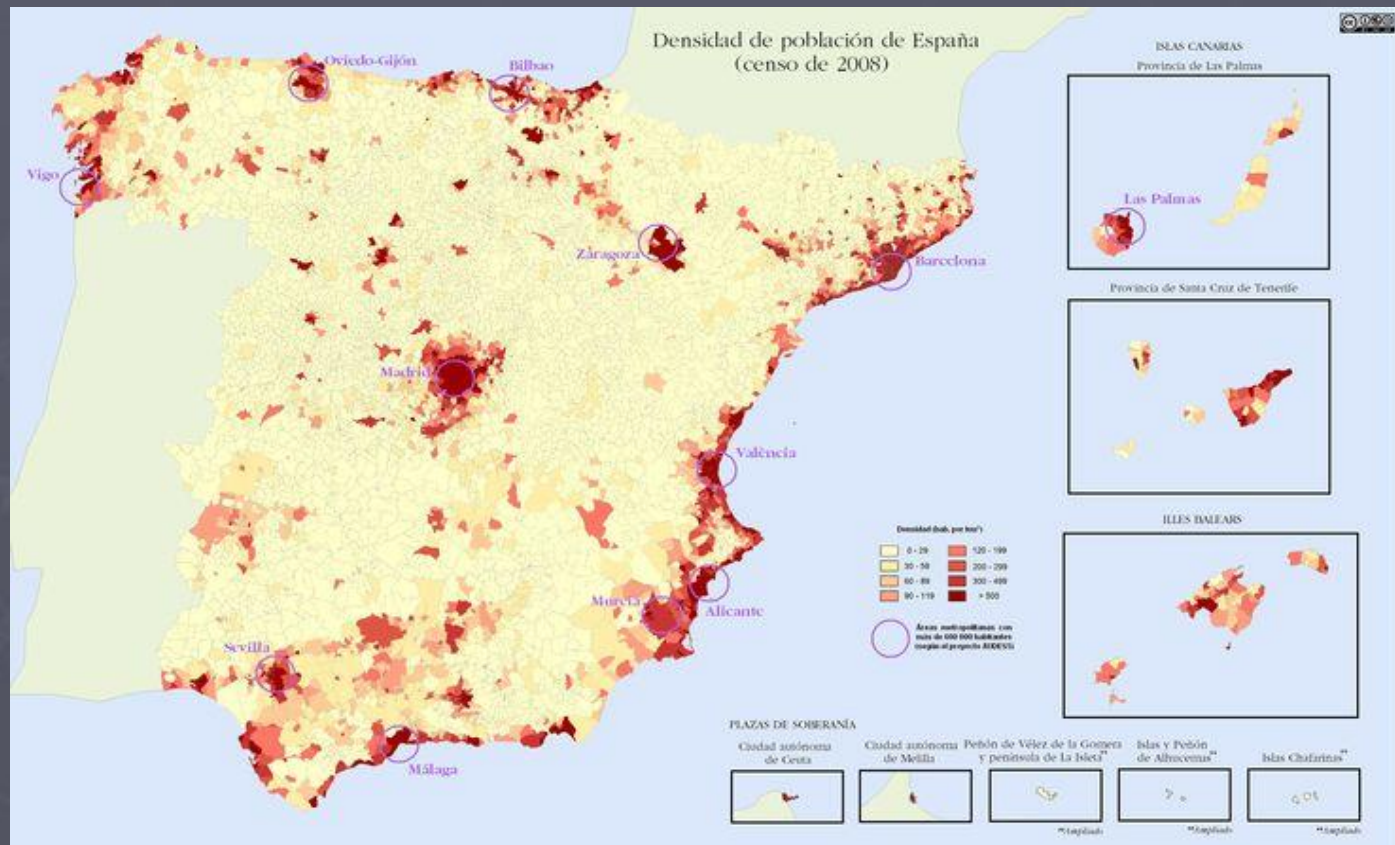

Graduated Symbol

- The bigger the symbol, the more of something exists in that area

Quantitative Symbology/Color Ramp

- Uses shades to imply density or higher quantity

Isoline

- Lines signify breaks or progressions

