

World History Unit III Study Guide

Name: Section:

Score: _____/5

Directions: Using your notes, handouts, and readings answer the following questions to help prepare you for the Unit III Test on the Classical World.

Theme 1 – Conflict and Compromise

The impacts that the following events have on the development of world history and regional/trans-regional stability and general progress of human society.

- 1. The Crusades
- 2. Muslim expansion
- 3. Mongol Expansion
- 4. Korean and Chinese Interactions
- 5. Japanese Interactions with East Asia
- 6. Chinese and Vietnamese interaction
- 7. Importance of India in Southeast Asia
- 8. European Influence in Africa
- 9. The Vikings

Theme 2 – Regional Interaction

Explain the ways that the following civilizations' societies were organized.

1. Role of religion (Christianity or Islam) in connecting regions.

Role the following people had in trying to increase/decrease regional connections a. Mohammad/Caliphates
b. Charlemagne
c. Justinian
d. Genghis Khan/Khanates
e. Sui/Tang Wars with Koreans
f. Delhi Sultanate
g. Bantu Migration
Theme 3 – Trans-Regional Interaction Summarize the significance/importance of the following people/dynasties in terms of connecting or dividin different regions. 1. The Crusades
2. Spread of Islam
3. Trade (Specifically Mediterranean or Silk Road Trade)

4.	Chinese Tribute System
5.	Buddhism
Explain	 4 – Governmental/Societal Organization the cultures differed, or used the following organizational concepts The Feudal System (Japanese or European) List and explain the different levels and their importance. a. Specifically England
2.	Mongol views of religion and women
3.	Chinese influence on Governmental structures of Eastern and Southeast Asia
4.	Similarities of African Systems with European or Asian Systems